The Journal of Correctional Education Index - 1988

Arbuthnot, Jack, Gordon, Donald A. Disseminating Effective Interventions for Juvenile Delinquents: Cognitively-based Sociomoral Reasoning Development Programs. June, 48-53.

Cheatwood, Derral. The Impact of the Prison Environment on the Incarcerated learner. December,184-186.

Ciuros, William, Jr. Opening Address: 1988 Correctional Education Leadership Forum. March, 2-4.

Collins, Michael. Towards a Distinctive Vocation for Prison Educators: Some Key Concerns and Relevant Strategies. March 24-28.

Davidson, Howard S. Meaningful Literacy Education in Prison? Problems and Possibilities, June, 76-81.

Duffy, James E. Keynote Address: 43rd International Correctional Education Association Conference. September, 104-106.

Duguid, Stephen. "To Inform Their Discretion" Prison Education and Empowerment. December,

Gehring, Thom. The Connection Between Democracy and Cognitive Processes in Correctional Education. June, 62-69.

Gehring, Thom. Five Principles of Correctional Education. December, 164-169.

Hamm, Mark S. Making Changes in Correctional Education. December, 146-152.

Harper, Glen W. Mental Ability and Academic Achievement of Male Juvenile Delinquents. March, 18-22.

Holder, Stephen C. A Dialectical Approach to Moral Issues in the Prison English Classroom. June, 86-88.

Khatibi, Manoucheher. A Curriculum for Life Skills Training Programs in the Correctional Setting. September, 116-120.

Larson, Katherine A. Remediating Problem Solving Skills. June, 70-74.

Lee, Thomas J. A Maverick Notion About Correctional Education. June, 58-61.

Michalek, William. Correctional Education: Skill Acquisition and Moral Enterprise. March, 6-10.

Nauth, Linda, Edwards, K. Anthony. Teaching Rational Behavior to Prison Inmates: Habilitating a Neglected Skill. June, 94-96.

Opalack, Nancy. Dispelling the Myth: Juvenile Offenders Do Return to Educational/Vocational Programs Post-Incarceration. September, 126-128.

Pasternack Robert, Portillos, Robert, Hoff, Henry. Providing an Appropriate Education to Adjudicated and Incarcerated Juvenile Delinquents: The Challenge to Correctional Education Administrators. December, 154-159.

Pearson, James. Economics and Education in the Correctional Setting: An Experimental Model. September, 122-124.

Pendleton, Ernesta P. Student-Centered Instruction: A Prison College Model for Building Self-Esteem. June, 82-84.

Platt, John S., Clements, J. Eugene, Platt, Jennifer M., Alexander, Ronnie N. Self-Charting as a Technique to Increase Independence in Pre-Delinquent and Delinquent Youth. March, 12-16.

Rabak, Thomas. Beyond Theory: The Art and Practice of Critical Thinking. June, 54-57.

Ross, Robert R., Fabiano, Elizabeth A., Ross, Roslynn D. (Re) Habilitation Through Education: A Cognitive Model for Corrections. June, 44-47.

Thomas, Robert G., Thomas, R. Murray. The Evolution of a Prison Adaptive Health Program. March, 30-35.

Toupin, Louis. Practical Experience and Instructional Approach by Teachers in Quebec Federal Penitentiaries. September, 108-113.

Wiley, Linda. Teaching Critical Thinking in the Prison Classroom. June, 90-92.

Zumpetta, Anthony W. Full-Time Vocational Training in Corrections: Measuring Effectiveness vs Appearance. September, 130-133.